INDIVIDUAL AND INSTITUTIONAL MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Oklahoma Museums Association is the statewide organization for museum staff, volunteers, board members and other Oklahomans who have an interest in museums.

Who should join?

Museum professionals at all levels (paid and volunteer) are encouraged to join. This includes executives, directors, managers, development officers, exhibit and program developers, educators, curators, collections managers, registrars, archivists, museum store managers, visitor services managers, board members, volunteers, students interested in museum careers, and others.

Institutions also are encouraged to join. OMA is the primary provider of training and information to Oklahoma's 500 museums, historical societies, historic sites, zoos and botanical gardens, historic houses, living history museums, tribal cultural centers, and other related entities.

Corporate memberships are available to businesses with an interest in museums. Contact OMA at 405.424.7757 or visit www.okmuseums.org.

Network

Throughout the year, OMA offers opportunities to network with people who share the same interest and job responsibilities. Opportunities include seminars and workshops, members only MIX events and the Annual Fall Conference.

Learn

Stay current with developments in the museum field. Each year, OMA offers affordable seminars and workshops on topics of interest to the staff, boards and volunteers of museums of all sizes and disciplines. OMA provides members with information on current issues, grant deadlines and the latest museum trends.

Join

With many involved members across Oklahoma, OMA is one of the most active state museum associations in the nation. Join today and begin receiving the wide variety of benefits offered only to members!
