A Letter from Brenda Granger, OMA Executive Director

THANK YOU to the many individuals, museums, organizations, businesses and all-around great people that make OMA such a wonderful organization. It takes many partnerships to help us achieve our mission to assist Oklahoma museums with their efforts to educate, inform and entertain. We love Oklahoma museums, and we are so happy that all of you do too.

We believe museums empower their communities. Our vision is to be a national model for state museum associations that encourages Oklahoma museums to develop and realize their full potential as essential, vital, and transformational components of their community.

Since 1972, OMA is the primary provider of professional development and training to staff and volunteers of Oklahoma’s 500+ museums, historical societies, historic sites, zoos and botanical gardens, historic houses, living history museums, tribal cultural centers and other museum-related institutions.

This year continued to be a little challenging, although OMA and Oklahoma museums remained vibrant and relevant. As we have done from the beginning of the pandemic, OMA continued to work tirelessly to be a resource. A few highlights this year were expanding our virtual programming with an expert voices speaker series on wellbeing and a webinar series on Strategic Planning 101. We held the Oklahoma Museum Conference and Smarties Trivia Night virtually, both with great success. We also received the Oklahoma Society of Association Executives Innovation Award for the virtual conference and an Oklahoma Travel Industry Association Red Bud honorable mention for our document, "Open to the Public" guidance considerations.

OMA loves to advocate for Oklahoma museums at the US Capitol and the Oklahoma Statehouse. One of the biggest accomplishments during the year was the Oklahoma legislature passing and Governor Stitt signing into law SB909 that allows 501c3 Oklahoma museums with budgets less than $1 million to be exempt from paying sales tax on sales of tangible personal property or services to a museum. Believe it or not, this was 20 years in the making and we appreciate everyone who made this legislation possible.

We continue to be a transparent organization and are happy to continue our involvement in GiveSmartOKC, a service of the Oklahoma City Community Foundation, where you can learn about our financials, governance and policies. OMA is so grateful for the many supporters as well as the federal emergency funding that allowed us to be in a stable financial shape during such a volatile time.

On behalf of OMA, Oklahoma’s museums, and the communities they serve thank you for being a part of the Oklahoma Museums Association. Your support and involvement are so important to us and the 500 Oklahoma museums we serve. We look forward to a great FY22, as we celebrate OMA turning 50 on May 24, 2022. We hope you will be a part of the celebration.
Thanks to our many members and supporters during FY2021!

OMA especially thanks the following for their substantial and ongoing support and commitment!
